SUMMER ACADEMIC CONCERT

We planned a summer concert welcoming a special guest thanks to Prof. Mark Haiman of UCSD. Admission free! Please come and enjoy the music. Everyone is cordially invited. The tentative program is as following.

Date: August 21, Mon, 2000 6:30 PM
Place: Toyoda Auditorium, Nagoya University
Artists: Ellen Ruth Rose(Viola, Special Guest)
Miss Ikuno Ando(Violin, Dept. of Educational Affairs)
Prof. Katsuo Hasegawa(Piano, Grad.School of Mathematics)
Program:

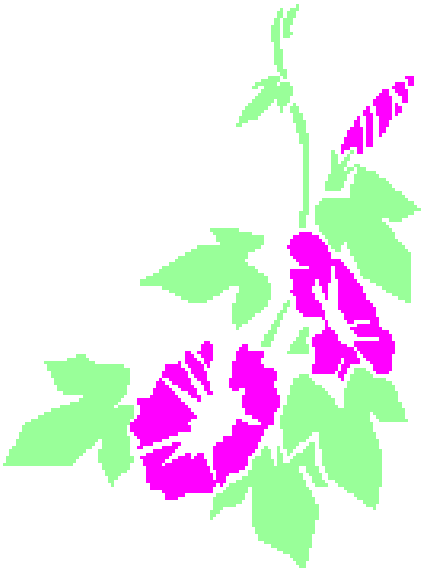
Mozart, Duo for Violin and Viola in G Major
Debussy, La Fille aux cheveux de lin
Dvorak, Sonatine
Kreisler, Sorrow of Love
J.S.Bach, Air on G String

ELLEN RUTH ROSE - BIOGRAPHY

Ellen Ruth Rose holds a master's degree in viola performance from The Juillard School, an artist diploma fromthe Northwest German Music Academy in Detmold,Germany, and a B.A. with honors in English and American history and literature from Harvard University. Her viola teachers have included Heidi Castleman, Nobuko Imai, Marcus Thompsonand Karen Tuttle.

She lived for several years in Cologne, Germany, where, as a member of Musik Fabrik and Thurmchen Ensemble, she premiered and recorded countless works as chamber musician and soloist.

She is presently a member of the Empyrean Ensemble, a new music ensemble in residence at the University of California, Davis, and Earplay, the San Francisco-based contemporary ensemble.



IKUNO ANDO - BIOGRAPHY

Ikuno Ando was graduated from Doshisha University in Kyoto. She is actively playing the violin in various occasions along her career working at the Department of Educational Affairs. Her French violin has so beautiful sounds.

Organizers: Prof. Anatol Kirillov, et.al.
Graduate School of Mathematics(Ext.5605)
Nagoya University